New plans stand on a firm foundation

Holy Cross is celebrating a year of impressive dedication and generosity. Contributions to the College made history with a record-breaking 17,227 alumni donors.

In recognition of their love and enthusiasm for Holy Cross, 55.2 percent of our alumni made a gift to the College. This achievement keeps Holy Cross among a very small and elite group of colleges and universities that can claim such extraordinary alumni support. An anonymous donor provided a $1 million challenge gift in recognition of this goal, contributing to a total of $22.9 million in donations. In addition, we saw tremendous attendance at our annual dinner of the Holy Cross Leadership Council of New York, where we honored alumnus Stan Grayson '72.

Such devotion has helped make Holy Cross the premier Jesuit liberal arts college in America. In my first few months as president, I have been deeply moved by our caring and enthusiastic Holy Cross community. Our year-end statistics are impressive by any measure, upholding our reputation as one of the country's most-loved colleges, based on our alumni giving rate. In this Report of Gifts, it is clear that the mission of Holy Cross is recognized and appreciated in heartfelt and tangible ways by its alumni, parents, students and friends.

In more good news, I recently had the pleasure of welcoming a new leader to the Office of Development. As our vice president for development and alumni relations, Tracy W. Barlok will certainly inspire us to even greater accomplishments in the years ahead. Upon her appointment, Tracy said, "The opportunity to serve Holy Cross in this leadership role, and at this particular time in its history, is very special. I have long admired the College's intellectual rigor, its mission-centered identity and its deep alumni loyalty. The institution is embarking upon an exciting new chapter as Fr. Boroughs leads the community in implementing an ambitious strategic plan. I am privileged to partner with him, with a committed Board of Trustees and a talented advancement staff to support this effort."

Together we will build on a strong foundation. This year we saw 1,046 non-alumni parents who made gifts to the College, the second highest Parents Fund total of all time and, for the second consecutive year, alumni giving from graduates 10 years out of the College or less exceeded 50 percent.

The Crusader Athletics Fund had 2,098 donors who made gifts totaling $678,994. In addition, alumni and parents donated 26 summer student research fellowships, and our 1843 Society welcomed 36 new members.

As we begin a new era, we stand on the shoulders of giants, including past presidents Rev. Michael C. McFarland, S.J., and the late Rev. John E. Brooks, S.J., '49. We owe so much to them and to the entire Holy Cross family, including our hard-working volunteers, class chairs, correspondents, agents, gift chairs and donors.

Such devotion brings many gifts to the world through the next generation of proud Crusaders. I am very grateful for the remarkable commitment that supports the special blessings of a Holy Cross education.

Outstanding Holy Cross Fund Volunteers

Matthew P. Cavanaugh '20 Award

RICHARD J. KENNY '72, P01

This award, established in 1970, is given in memory of Matthew P. Cavanaugh '20, who started the Holy Cross Fund in 1947, and served the College in the Office of Development from 1947 to 1989. It is given to the Class Chair who over the past year has demonstrated exceptional dedication to his or her Class and to the College.

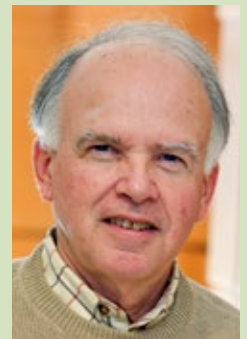

In 2009, Kenny became a Class Chair and has worked diligently to encourage his classmates to give back. In 2011-12, he was also the Gift Chair for his 40th reunion. Kenny assembled an outstanding committee and crafted an impressive strategy, resulting in the Class of '72 reaching its highest participation rate ever, and raising the most amount of money since the 25th reunion. Kenny believed in his class and helped make it shine.

Joseph A. Perrotta '28 Award

DAVID J. MARTEL '65

This award, established in 1975, is given in memory of Joseph A. Perrotta '28, who served as Secretary to the President of the College from 1929 to 1972. It is given to the Class Chair or Correspondent who over the past year has communicated with his or her classmates in an especially dedicated way.

Martel has served as a Class Chair since his graduation in 1965. His class has relied on him to keep them in touch through his regular newsletter, the "Poop-Basic Dispatch." Martel's level of detail and dedication to chronicling the lives of the men of '65 is unparalleled.

Honoring Classmates, Commitment and Holy Cross

William “Bill” O’Leary had the vision, passion and formidable team to take on the ambitious goals set for the Class of 1962 50th Reunion Gift effort. He tapped Mike Leding, aka “Mamie Reilly” to his classmates, to head the Class of 1962 Gift Advisory Board. Their yearlong effort resulted in gift totals and participation levels that exceeded their goals in ways that were as meaningful as they were extraordinary.

William J. O’Leary ’62

“I’ve been a class chair for 15 years,” Bill said. “I see my role as providing the catalyst for raising funds in support of the College and for strengthening our bonds as a class. This special Reunion year would demand focus, order and structure if we were to reach our goals in support of the College. We also needed someone with great tenacity to lead the effort. I could not have found a better, more determined nor more committed volunteer than Mike Leding.”

Michael J. Leding ’62

On June 30, the final numbers proved Bill right. Their generous classmates had contributed more than $475,000 to the Holy Cross Fund and nearly $1.5 million in gifts, pledges and planned gifts. In addition to spurring a remarkable 76 percent participation level, Bill, Mike and their team made certain that gifts were made in memory of each of their deceased classmates.

“We were successful because we worked very hard and did our homework,” said Mike, president of Michael J. Leding, Jr. & Associates, a management consulting firm. “Our advisory board and committee members contacted classmates with ‘like-memories,’ which was a very effective strategy. We wrote letters, sent emails, made phone calls, did teleconferences and even put my assistant, Jane, to work. My son, Mark, set up a website for us, where we had blogs. We also passed the basket at our Class Mass in memory of our deceased classmates. It was an unbelievable year.”

Down to the Wire Dedication

Casey C. Lee ’10

As student leaders Casey C. Lee ’10 and Kristopher F.X. Zelesky ’10 were fierce competitors. After graduation, Casey, now in her first year of law school at Catholic University, and Kris,

Kristopher F.X. Zelesky ’10

assistant director of the Holy Cross Fund, found common ground, their love for Holy Cross. They became the best of friends as they worked tirelessly to increase their classmates’ participation in the 2012 Holy Cross Fund.

“Casey and I touched base every day to go over our class lists,” Kris said. “She was in Texas with Teach for America. I think the distance made us plan better. As we neared the deadline for giving, we would talk every hour, sometimes at midnight.”

Their round-the-clock efforts paid off. Just before the Fund closed, the pair and their team of dedicated volunteers brought in 100 gifts in just 36 hours. Class participation rose to 51 percent thanks to 364 class donors, including more than 60 new donors.

“When we had to kick it into high gear, I was on a cruise and calling classmates at 60 cents a minute, but it was worth it,” Casey said. “I reminded people who said they were too busy with their job to give to Holy Cross that they had their job because of Holy Cross. Kris and I are already building infrastructure for next year’s effort.”

Engaging Classmates

Jared T. and Marie E. Golden DiPalma’s will- ingness to chair the Class of 2002 10th Reunion Gift effort fully articulates their decade of passion- ate advocacy and generous engagement with Holy Cross.

Jared T. ’02 and Marie E. Golden DiPalma ’02

“We met at Holy Cross and I proposed to Marie in front of the Chapel, where we were married,” said Jared, senior vice president of finance at NBCUniversal in New York. “Holy Cross has been part of our milestones. The strong bonds we made there have lasted for half our lives. We believe in the mission and culture of the school. Giving back for us goes beyond writing a check.”

In advance of their 10th Reunion, the couple invited classmates in the New York metro area to a reception to start the conversation about opportunities to engage with the College and to give back.

“We made the event personal so people would reflect on the impact of Holy Cross in their lives,” said Marie, executive director of North America marketing at Estée Lauder. “We both benefited from alumni career guidance and New York Leadership Council internships. It’s a joy for us to help Holy Cross students.”

Financial Aid: Ensuring Access While Recruiting Excellence

Eileen M. O'Brien '14, recipient of the Power Family Classes of '20, '53, '69, '93 Scholarship and the James J. Courtney '70 Family Scholarship

- In FY12, nearly half (48 percent) of Holy Cross students received a College-funded grant that averaged $26,700.
- 63 percent of students received some form of aid through the combination of a College scholarship grant, federal loan and/or work-study dollars.
- 16 percent of Holy Cross students are Pell grant-eligible, meaning that their parents have a gross combined income of less than $40,000. Among all colleges and universities nationwide, Holy Cross enrolls the second-highest percentage of Pell-eligible students.
- On average, financial aid-eligible students at Holy Cross graduate with loans totaling less than $20,000.

Reunion Giving

Classes in reunion years once again provided an important source for participation and overall giving to Holy Cross. This year, four new reunion records were set. The Class of 1952, in celebration of its 60th reunion, set a total reunion giving record with $742,828. The Class of 1977 contributed a record-breaking $429,869 to the Holy Cross Fund for its 35th Reunion. The Class of 1982 set a total donor record for its 30th Reunion with 375. The Class of 1992 also set a total donor record in its 20th reunion with 378.

This year, reunion giving totaled $5,688,159, of which $2,419,153 was designated to the Holy Cross Fund. Holy Cross is grateful to all reunion alumni who made gifts in honor of their reunion and to all of our extraordinary volunteers who gave their time and energy so generously in order to lead their classes' reunion gift efforts.
